Business Meeting:

Calli Biaggi confirmed that the state conference had been cancelled and requested a small committee group to be formed to put together a two day mini training conference to be held within the San Joaquin Valley in Fall 2009. Calli will head the committee. Calli advised, as a possible location option, that she would be able to book the Clovis Memorial Building for free.

Discussion was had regarding membership into the International Association of Crime Analysts (IACA) as part of the CVCIAA membership. The membership would be paid to the state association. CVCIAA pays a $200 fee yearly to the state association, and the addition of members to the IACA would be $15 more per member. Membership into IACA would be voluntary and CVCIAA would only pay for members wishing to join. Robin Meyst made a motion "As CVCIAA members we should offer IACA membership for those who want it." Calli Biaggi seconded. Motion carried.

Next discussion involved moving the regular meetings to the last Wednesday of the month, every other month starting in March. Robin Meyst made a motion "to move meetings to the last Wednesday of month, every other month thereby modifying the bylaws." Dianne Fain seconded. Motion carried. Bylaws will be modified.

The following ideas were presented by Dianna Fain for future training:
